“We are the ones to change
our community...”

Nevis is raising the bar.

Greetings Friends,

Because of you, 8,000 Tanzanian girls have had a Mentor to support them on their leadership journey since 2010.

Nevis is one of these girls — she joined Kisa to gain confidence and learn about leadership.

Nevis built a trusting relationship with her Mentor, developed her leadership skills, and put them into action by participating in a 2 Day Challenge service project to clean up the environment.

“We are the ones to change our community,” Nevis explains. “As a visionary leader, I can solve problems in my community because of the confidence I gained.”

One village chairman commented on the impact of seeing girls lead in the community:

AFRICAID

“How I used to think about girls has completely changed. No one has ever convinced me to change my beliefs the way they did.”

Today, Nevis is pursuing her dream of studying law at university.

At the same time, she’s using her entrepreneurship skills to sell fabric to help cover her costs and continuing to practice socially-responsible leadership by volunteering at a local orphanage to provide materials to the kids like soap, shoes, and clothes.

Your support changed Nevis’ life. She’s raising the bar by demonstrating the power of confident, educated girls and setting an example for future generations.

Can you envision a future where all girls have support to stay in school, follow their dreams, and become confident leaders like Nevis?

You’ve already made that a reality for 8,000 girls. Will you be the one to change another girl’s life with a gift today?

In gratitude,

Jana Kinsey
